NUMBER OF TRUSTEES.

12. The Trustees of the Company shall be three in number.

DIVIDENDS.

13. Subject, as aforesaid, the profits of the Company shall be divisible among the members in proportion to the amount paid up on the shares held by them respectively: Provided, nevertheless, that where capital is paid up in advance of calls upon the footing that the same shall carry interest, such capital shall not, whilst carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits.

14. The Company in general meeting may declare a dividend to be paid to the members according to their rights and interests in the profits.

15. No larger dividend shall be declared than is recommended by the Trustees, but the Company may in general meeting declare a smaller dividend.

18. The Trustees may, from time to time, pay to the members such interim dividends as in their judgment the position of the Company justifies.

19. The Trustees may retain any dividends on which the Company has a lien, and may apply the same in or towards the satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.

20. A transfer of shares or stock shall not pass the right to any dividend thereon before the registration of the transfer.

21. The Trustees may retain the dividends payable upon shares or stock in respect of which any person is under the transmission clause entitled to become a member, or which any person under that clause is entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a member in respect thereof or shall duly transfer the same.

22. In case several persons are registered as the joint holders of any shares or stock, any one of such persons may give effectual receipts for all dividends and payments on account of dividends in respect of such shares or stock.

23. Unless otherwise directed any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the member entitled, or in the case of joint holders to that one whose name stands first on the register in respect of the joint holding, and every cheque shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.

24. All dividends unclaimed for one year after having been declared may be invested, or otherwise made use of by the Trustees for the benefit of the Company until claimed, and all dividends unclaimed for six years after having been declared may be forfeited by the Trustees for the benefit of the Company.

ACCOUNTS.

25. The Trustees shall cause true accounts to be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Company, and the matters in respect of which such receipt and expenditure takes place, and of the assets, credits and liabilities of the Company.

26. The books of account shall be kept at the registered office of the Company, or such other place or places as the Trustees think fit.

27. The Trustees shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent, and at what times and places, and under what conditions or regulations, the accounts and books of the Company, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of the members; and no member shall have any right of inspecting any account, or book, or document of the Company, except as conferred by Statute or authorized by the Trustees, or by a resolution of the Company in general meeting.

28. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be examined, and the correctness of the profit and loss account and balance sheet ascertained, by one or more auditor or auditors.

29. The first auditor or auditors shall be appointed by the Trustees; subsequent auditors shall be appointed at the ordinary meeting in each year by the Company. The remuneration of the auditors shall be fixed by the Company in general meeting. Any auditor quitting office shall be eligible for re-election.

30. If one auditor only is appointed, all the provisions herein contained relating to auditors shall apply to him.

31. The auditors may be members of the Company, but no person shall be eligible as an auditor who is interested, otherwise than as a member of the Company, in any transaction thereof, and no Trustee or other officer shall be eligible during his continuance in office.

32. If any casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor, the Trustees shall forthwith fill up the same.

NOTICES.

33. A notice may be served by the Company upon any member, either personally or by sending it through the post, in a prepaid registered envelope, addressed to such member at his registered place of address.

34. Any notice required to be given by the Company to the members, or any of them, and not expressly provided for by these presents, shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement.

35. Any notice required to be, or which may be, given by advertisement, shall be advertised once in one Vancouver daily newspaper.

WINDING UP.

36. If the Company shall be wound up, the liquidators (whether voluntary or official) may, with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution, divide among the contributories, in specie, any part of the assets of the Company, and may, with the like sanction, vest any part of the assets of the Company in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidators, with the like sanction, shall think fit.

INDEMNITY.

37. Every trustee, manager, secretary, and other officer or servant of the Company, shall be indemnified by the Company against, and it shall be the duty of the Trustees out of the funds of the Company to pay, all costs, losses, and expenses which any such officer or servant may incur or become liable to by reason of any contract entered into, or act or thing done by him as such officer or servant, or in any way in the discharge of his duties, including travelling expenses; and the amount for which such indemnity is provided shall immediately attach as a lien on the property of the Company, and have priority as between the members over all other claims.

38. No Trustee or other officer of the Company shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other Trustee or officer, or for joining in any receipt or other act for conformity, or for any loss or expense happening to the Company, through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by order of the Trustees for or on behalf of the Company, or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the moneys of the Company shall be invested or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious act of any person with whom any moneys, securities, or effects shall be deposited, or for any other loss, damage or misfortune whatever, which shall happen in the execution of the duties of his respective office or in relation thereto, unless the same happen through his own wilful act or default.
